

Second Hand Air Tank Price in Malaysia 2024: Cost, Quotation & Supplier Deals

Second Hand Air Tank Price in Malaysia 2024: Cost, Quotation & Supplier Deals

Want to save 30-50% on industrial equipment? Over 65% of Malaysian factories now buy second hand air tanks to cut costs. But how much should you pay for reliable used units? Prices vary wildly - one buyer in Selangor paid RM 1,200 for a 50L tank last month, while a Penang workshop wasted RM 800 on a leaking unit. Let's fix this.

What Affects the Second Hand Air Tank Price in Malaysia?

Three things decide your final cost:

Tank capacity: 20L tanks start at RM 700, while 100L industrial units hit RM 3,500

Brand reputation: Japan-made SMC tanks cost 25% more than China models but last 2x longer

Condition: Pressure-tested tanks sell 40% faster on Mudah.my and Facebook Marketplace

Real Price Examples (June 2024 Update)

JB Metalworks saved RM 2,100 by buying a 80L used air tank from a closed Penang factory. Their total cost? RM 2,400 with free shipping. Meanwhile, KL-based supplier AirProTech sells refurbished 50L tanks for RM 1,550 - including 6-month warranties.

How to Get the Best Quotation

Top suppliers like China's Henan Ming Machinery now offer wholesale prices for 5+ units. For single purchases:

Check PSI ratings match your compressor system

Ask for ASME certification documents

Compare prices on TechAsia.my vs direct factory imports

A Shah Alam automotive shop cut costs by 38% using this method - they bought three 60L tanks at RM 1,900 each through a Kuala Lumpur liquidation auction.

Why 2024 Prices Are Dropping

Malaysia's Industrial Development Authority reports 22% more used equipment entering the market since 2023. China's post-pandemic factory closures flooded Southeast Asia with affordable second hand air tanks. Smart buyers now get:

Free pressure testing from certified suppliers

3-month payment plans
