Second Hand Core Drilling Rig for Sale in India: 2024 Price List, Quotation & ROI Guide

Looking for second hand core drilling rig price in India? You're not alone. Over 78% of construction contractors now consider used equipment to cut project costs while maintaining productivity. This guide reveals current market prices, supplier deals, and smart buying strategies - with actual quotes from trusted sellers.

Why India's Market Demands Affordable Solutions

India's infrastructure sector is growing at 8.3% CAGR (NITI Aayog 2023), yet 65% of small contractors struggle with equipment costs. New core drilling rigs from Germany or China often cost INR18-35 lakhs ($21,500-$42,000), while refurbished models sell for 40-60% less. Last month, a Mumbai-based contractor saved INR9.2 lakhs buying a 2021 Soilmec rig through verified resellers.

Key Price Factors for Used Rigs

Age: 2020-2022 models priced 25% lower than new

Brand: Atlas Copco vs Indian manufacturers (INR5-7 lakh gap)

Condition: Certifications add 15-20% value

2024 Price Range: What to Expect

The average second hand core drilling rig price in India starts at INR6.5 lakhs ($7,800) for basic models, reaching INR24 lakhs ($28,800) for advanced rigs with casing systems. Price per piece varies:

Type	Price (INR)	Depth	Capacity
Portable	6.5L-11L	0-30m
Medium	12L-18L	30-100m
HD Truck-Mounted	19L-24L	100-200m

3-Step Buying Guide for Maximum ROI

Verify machine history via OEM portals (e.g., Sandvik's Equipment Log)

Compare 3+ quotations from platforms like IndiaMART or direct suppliers

Inspect hydraulic systems and drill head (maintenance costs drop 40% with proper checks)
