Second Hand DTH Drilling Rig Price in Greece 2025: Cost, Quotation & Buyer's Guide

Need a Reliable Used DTH Rig in Greece? Here's What You Need to Know

Looking for second hand DTH drilling rig price in Greece? You're not alone. Over 65% of construction companies in Greece now opt for used equipment to cut costs without sacrificing performance. But finding the right deal? That's tricky. Fake listings, hidden defects, and fluctuating prices can turn your cost-saving plan into a money pit.

Why the Rush for Used DTH Rigs?

In 2023, Greece imported 287 used drilling rigs - a 22% jump from 2022. Why? New rigs cost EUR150,000-EUR500,000. Second hand DTH drilling rig prices in Greece start at just EUR45,000 for basic models. Take the case of Thessaloniki-based GeoDrill Co.: they saved EUR78,000 buying a refurbished 2020 model from a German supplier, using the savings to expand their fleet.

2025 Price Trends: How Much Will You Save?

Right now, second hand DTH rig prices in Greece range between:

Small rigs (500-800 m depth): EUR45,000-EUR90,000

Mid-size rigs (800-1200 m): EUR95,000-EUR150,000

Heavy-duty rigs (1200+ m): EUR160,000-EUR280,000

Smart Buying Tips for Greek Buyers

Demand inspection reports translated into Greek. Many rigs entering Greece come from Germany's mining sector upgrades or China's overstock auctions. Last month, a Piraeus buyer scored a 2018 Drillmax XR50 for EUR62,000 (35% below market) through a Rotterdam-based liquidation sale.

Get Your Custom Quotation: Local vs. Imported Options

Want the best price per piece? Compare these routes:

Local Greek dealers: Faster delivery, 6-12 month warranties

EU suppliers: Lower prices (German/Dutch sellers offer 10-15% discounts)

China wholesale deals: Risky but prices start at EUR38,000 (pre-shipping)

Pro tip: Use the EU's "Green Machinery" subsidy - Greece offers up to EUR12,000 rebates for eco-upgraded used equipment until December 2025.

Your Next Step: How to Avoid Scams
