Second Hand Stationary Air Compressor in Denmark: 2025 Price List, Supplier Deals & ROI Guide

Why Businesses Are Switching to Used Compressors

Want to cut equipment costs without losing power? You're not alone. Over 60% of Danish workshops now use second hand stationary air compressors - with prices up to 70% lower than new units. But here's the problem: How do you find reliable machines at fair prices? Let's break down exactly what you'll pay in 2025 and where to get the best ROI.

Current Market Prices in Denmark (2025 Data)

A 10HP used stationary air compressor costs DKK 15,000-35,000 ($2,200-$5,100), depending on brand and usage hours. For example: Atlas Copco GA11 (5,000 hrs): ~DKK 28,000 Chinese rebuilt units: From DKK 12,500 But wait - price in Denmark varies wildly between suppliers. A Copenhagen dealer recently sold a refurbished Ingersoll Rand SS5 for DKK 19,999, while identical models cost DKK 27,500 in Aarhus.

3 Hidden Costs That Tank Your ROI

1. Transport: Moving a 300kg compressor from Germany adds DKK 2,500+
2. Missing specs: 40% of used units lack proper pressure test certificates
3. Quick breakdowns: Unserviced machines fail 3x faster according to Odense Tech College's 2024 study

Smart Buying Strategy

Here's how HVAC company AirTech A/S saved DKK 47,000: Compared price quotes from 8 EU suppliers Chose a 2020 Kaeser SX9 with 2-year warranty Their secret? Buying through Denmark's Industrial Resale Network that pre-checks all units.

Where to Get Instant Price Comparisons

Top 3 platforms for second hand stationary air compressor deals: MaskinRegisteret.dk (100+ Danish listings) EU-wide Surplex (free VAT calculations) Local auctions (25-40% below retail) Pro tip: Ask for "DKK 22,000-range quotes" - that's the sweet spot for mid-size 7.5-15HP units.
